

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USING DATASET

The following conditions apply when accessing and using the Maldives Population and Housing Census micro dataset 2014.

1. Maldives Bureau of Statistics (MBS) would make available Census 2014 Anonymized Micro-Data to the second party at no cost.
2. Second party agrees to use the Anonymized Micro-Data for stated purposes only and not to share with other users, or copies of it made for deposit with international organisations or databases.
3. Publication of this dataset in any website or any other mean where a third party can access, is strictly prohibited, and failure to do so will result in the termination of this agreement without any notice.
4. The second party will implement security measures to prevent unauthorized access to micro data acquired from the first party. The micro data must be destroyed upon completion of the analysis for the study. Destruction of the micro data will be confirmed in writing by the second party to the first party.
5. Both parties agree that any changes to this agreement shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.
6. This Agreement shall be effective as of the first date written and shall continue in full force and effect until the end date of the project or an earlier date if the project is completed ahead of time.
7. Any data or analysis of the data for any purpose other than the intended study requested by the first party will be a breach of this agreement.
8. Any dispute arising out of this Agreement shall try to resolve through amicable means. In case of breach of confidentiality, the penalties in the “Statistical Law of Maldives, 2021 (Law 16/ 2021, of chapter 7)” will apply.
9. Any books, articles, conference papers, thesis, dissertations, reports or other publications produced using this census data set obtained from the MBS should cite the source ‘Maldives Population and Housing Census 2014’. A softcopy of any such document produced should also be made available to Maldives Bureau of Statistics.
