

The Statistical Yearbook of Maldives - 2012 was prepared by the Statistics Division of the Department of National Planning, Ministry of Finance & Treasury

Publication of this series is made possible through the timely and valuable contributions of the concerned agencies, including all atoll offices and island offices. We gratefully acknowledge their continued cooperation and support, in providing the necessary information. Names of the agencies that provided data for the Yearbook are acknowledged in the respective tables of the publication.